[Siren Publishing: The Lynn Hagen ManLove Collection: Erotic Alternative Paranormal, M/M, shape-shifters, werewolves, HEA] Taken from an abusive pack, Shiloh has lived at the Den for over two decades, feeling as if he didn't quite fit in with all the couples in the house. On an outing with Johnny and Spencer, Shiloh is pulled into one of their schemes and finds himself in Sebastian Brac's territory. They were supposed to only stop for coffee, until the alpha steps into the shop and Shiloh realizes that the brooding stranger is his mate. Since meeting two decades ago, Sebastian has been at odds with his brother and keeping his distance. When Sebastian enters the coffee shop to get warm, a wonderful smell leads him to a shy little wolf hiding behind the fireplace. The English Emblem Tradition - Alan R. Young 1988-01-01

This volume of the Index Emblematicus deals with three early seventeenth-century works: Remaines of a Greater Worke Concerning Britaine, by William Camden; The Mirrour of Maiestie, by H.G.; and Otto van Veen's Amorum Emblemata. Camden's Remaines is noteworthy for using impresse in language as pictorial image; for mixing impresse with cognizance; and for considering impresa itself as the identity of the individual rather than as a general principle. H.G.'s Mirrour is remarkable in that every one of its emblems consists of a personal heraldic coat of arms of an identified statesman twinned with a pictorial engraving, motto, and epigram on an opposite page. Van Veen's Emblemata enters literary history as a volume of emblem pictures consecrated to secular love experience, encapsulating some of the conventions of the sonnet sequences and having a strong influence on religious love literature. Each book is reproduced with critical and bibliographic introductions, translation of the poems and mottos, descriptions of the emblems, and indices to the visual and verbal components of the works.

Because, eventually, accidentally, I will destroy you." As a slave in the war-weary kingdom of Faelen, seventeen-year-old Nym isn't merely devoid of rights, her Elemental kind are only born male and always killed at birth—meaning, she shouldn't even exist. Standing on the auction block beneath smoke-drenched mountains, Nym faces her fifteenth sell. But when her hood is removed and her storm-summoning killing curse revealed, Nym is snatched up by a court advisor and given a choice: be trained as the weapon Faelen needs to win the war or be killed. Choosing the former, Nym is unleashed into a world of politics, bizarre parties, and rumors of an evil more sinister than she's being prepared to fight . . . not to mention the trainer whose dark secrets lie behind a mysterious ability to calm every lightning strike she summons.
