Ace The Adventurous - Silenat Fente

2021-04-10

"Ace The Adventurous" is an inspiring story of a young sheep, Ace, whose curiosity and adventure-seeking nature got him in trouble. Luckily for Ace, he had a shepherd who would always protect and be there for him. This bible-based story will help kids see the loving and forgiving heart of God towards them. It will also equip parents to guide children into the word of God from an early age. Silenat is a disciple, a mom, a youth ministry teacher, a mentor, and a traveler. Growing up alone, for most of her childhood, books were her friends. They gave her a window to see the world. But one book transformed her life and showed her an entirely different and wonderful world. That book was the bible. She now writes bible-based storybooks to give children the ability to see beyond what is visible and believe in the impossible: a world that is full of love, wonder, and beauty. Silenat lives in Seattle with her husband and son.

Addicts, Why I Love Them - Judy Lohr

2020-11-13

Addicts know how cunning, baffling, and powerful the disease they are battling is. Families are sure they have the answer to their loved one's problems if only the addict would heed their advice! Most communities are woefully lacking in treatment programs and facilities that work. Treatment providers are outnumbered by the patients battling addiction, and they struggle with how mental illness muddies up the picture and how little government officials care about those bothersome addicts. Sometimes it's not lack of caring. Sometimes it's ignorance by officials, medical personnel, and undereducated treatment folks and lack of facilities. How much would it mean to most folks impacted by this insidious disease to be able to navigate the roadblocks to getting their loved ones the help they need and deserve? Read on to discover some of the challenges in one community. Could it be your community?
